

TOP SECRET

MISSION FROM ROLO

SEASON 5
EPISODE
1

Hey! Creators! It's me, Rolo!

WELCOME BACK TO THE STORY PIRATES PODCAST!!!

Sorry if this top secret message looks a little bit messy. Remember that green goo I got stuck in earlier? I'm trying to turn it into a new soup ingredient, but it keeps exploding when I heat it up and splattering everywhere. I hope all of the goo washes out of my mustache...

Anyway! I'm writing because I have a mission for you! There's a whole new adventure getting started at the center of the earth and I want to know: what's going to happen next??

If you were listening very carefully, you might have heard that while we were falling down the lavafall we saw: a colony of Earthworms...a giant glowing bean...dinosaurs...and crystals. I wonder if we'll get to see any of that stuff up close! And what else will we find??

Your mission is to create a movie poster with something exciting you think should happen in an upcoming episode! I made one to get you inspired: check it out below! To make a poster, just fire up your imagination to brainstorm ANYTHING that you'd like to happen on the podcast. After that:

- Think of a fun title
- Draw a picture
- Maybe write what someone is saying, and then...
- Have a grownup send it to me! I want to see your work!

Next week, I'll send you another secret message where I'll share a few of the movie posters that grownups send to me.

I can't wait to see what you come up with!

Your friend,

Rolo

Grownups: to share your kid's movie poster, please go to storypirates.com/submit-a-story, and select "Mission from Rolo" as your reason for submitting.

I don't know if this will really happen on the podcast, I just thought it sounded cool. When you draw a poster, use your imagination and get as WEIRD as you want! -Rolo
